

The Daily Market Report

PORTLAND, April 8.—Fish dealers today reported a general scarcity of the small varieties, but with good weather prevailing the outlook is for a better supply within a short time. Prices were unchanged. Halibut and salmon stocks for the time are sufficient for the demand, the latter coming from the Sacramento, which will be practically the sole source of supply for the remainder of this month, the result of the action of the State Fish Commission in ordering the Willamette and Clackamas Rivers closed until May 1. This means that the trade will have to pay the present high price for salmon for the next three weeks.

There was plenty of California asparagus on the street today, and the stuff was quoted at 6 to 9 cents a pound. Oregon grass now being some thing of a factor in the market.

Cabbage, cauliflower and celery were comparatively scarce and firm at the prices that ruled yesterday. Limited offerings of local cauliflower are now coming in and selling at $1.25 to $1.50.

The last shipment of Florida tomatoes came through in good shape and the product was quoted at $3.25 crate today. A third car is expected soon. But few Mexican tomatoes now remain in the market.

One carload of oranges was reported in today. Medium and small sizes are scarce.

At 21 to 22 cents a dozen eggs moved in a fairly satisfactory way today, though some dealers reported a demand a little less strong than the past few days. Receipts as reported by the Board of Trade were 2 cases. Dealers generally look for clean-up this week but some of them expect a break next week. Considerable quantities are still going to the end.

CURED BRONCHITIS.

Mrs. Hopkins Says Her Life Was Saved—Choked and Gaped For Breath.

"Some five years ago I was taken with a bad attack of bronchitis. I was affected with a bronchial cough and cold, the cough was generally much more apparent at night, and I would wake up choking and gasping for breath, and there seemed to be a terrible stoppage in my throat and tubes. My throat was tender and irritable, and had an aching sensation, which was especially bad at times. I doctored and used several remedies, but received no permanent relief until I used Hyomei. This remedy is certainly infallible, and it saved my life, and I accord it the credit which it deserves. There is nothing too strong for me to say regarding Hyomei."—Mrs. Ada Hopkins, 8 Cutter Ave., Coldwater, Mich., August 22, 1908.

T. F. Laurin tells Hyomei (pronounced High-o-me) and he guarantees it to cure bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, croup, hay fever, coughs and colds, or money back.

The price for a complete outfit is only $1.00, which includes a bottle of Hyomei and a neat hard rubber inhaler.
